CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW. An experienced Nurse and Female Physician presents to the attention of mothers her SOOTHING SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is is sure to regulate the Bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and Benefit and Health to your Infants.

We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used.

Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction oy any one who use it. On the contrary, all are lelighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "vohat we do know" after ten years experience and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrups is administered.

ninutes after the Syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription fone of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILL-FUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER-FAILING SUCCESS in

THOUSANDS OF CASES It not only relieves the child from pain, but in vigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidi ity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bosels and Wind Volic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY in the world in ALL cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARHCEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE, yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE, to follow this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. KINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!

THE SECOND VOLUME of the "KENTUCKY FAR-MER" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agriculturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us one or more additional names for the THIRD VOLUME.

al names for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would published ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased for the Second Volume, but is nothing like so large as it should be. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

THE COMMONWEALTH

The Conspiracy to Break up the Union! THE PLOT & ITS DEVELOPMENT. Breckinridge and Lane the Candidates

we have heretotore stated that we believed the sole object of the bolters, in running Breckinridge, was to bring about a dissolution of the Union.

As the paradoxical nature of such an enterprise be elected. If this direction with a candidate non in the Presidential contest a Black Republican we be elected. If this direction with a candidate non in the Presidential contest a Black Republican we be elected. might well inspire a measure of incredulity with regard to the authenticity of the grounds on which it is imported we attend that it is morning to the stand that it is morning to the stand that it is imported we attend that it is morning to the stand to the stan developments, we must commence with the foreminated in the disruption and consequent sectionalization of the Democratic party. This preliminary step was deemed necessary to the suc-Democracy, whether with or without reason, was seen that the necessary pretext for a dissolution of the Union would be difficult to find, especially as the Southern mind had long been sedulously taught to repose its hopes on both the ability and willingness of the Democracy to proteet and maintain the rights of the South. It was, therefore, essential in the first place to disenchant significance of the following extract from the well-known letter addressed by the Hon. William L. Yancey to Mr. Slaughter, under date of June that invaluable right.

15. 1858:

"2d. Be it further resolved, That, in the ab

"The remedy of the South is in a diligent organization of her true men for prompt resistance to the next aggression. It must come in the nature of things. No national party can save us; sectional party can ever do it. But if we cou do as our fathers did—organize committees of safety all over the cotton States, (and it is only in them that we can hope for any effective movement)—we shall fire the Southern heart, instruct the Southern mind, give courage to each othe and at the PROPEE MOMENT, by one organized concerted action, we can precipitate the cotton States in

According to this view, a national party, be cause of its very nationality, cannot be expected to save the South, as Mr. Yancey understands salvation. Just as little can a sectional party hope to accomplish this end, because a Southern see tional party must needs be too weak, to carry its purposes. In either event, therefore, disunion is the only ultimate remedy, as it is the only and the inevitable result contemplated by the writer.

The successive stages reached in the initial steps of this movement will be discerned in the following extracts from the Mobile Mercury of April, 1859, reflective of the disunion sentiment cherished by a portion of the Southern De

"The times are now ripe for the organizati of a political movement in the slaveholding States, irrespective of course of all old party designations; and there are peculiar reasons why suc a movement should be undertaken now and here Indeed, we are credibly informed that conferences have already been held by leading patriotic gentlemen in this city, of all parties, and the plans of a Southern organization have been set on foot and almost matured preparatory to action. We earnestly hope the good work may go on, and speedily. The country, we repeat, is ripe for the movement, and, if judiciously inangurated, it will sweep over the land with a force that no opposition will be able to check. We therefore caution of friends in the country everywhere, to be prepared for it, and to keep themselves free from all entang-ling alliances which may hinder them from joining in

In the following October, the Charleston Mercury put forth the subjoined programme, by which the "preliminaries" could be arranged

"1. That the Legislatures of the Southern States, at their next meetings, distinctly declare the rights of the South, as plainly deducible from the Dred Scott case, accompanied with a resolu-tion that they will vote for no one for the Presi-dency or Vice Presidency of the United States who does not plainly and distinctly affirm and support them without non-commitalism, dodging

Should the Charleston Convention declare and affirm these rights, and nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency who dis-tinctly support them, then the Southern States will support such candidates, and should they be elected, proof will be afforded that the South continue with safety in the Confederacy.

But should the candidates for the Presi dency and Vice Presidency, thus fairly nominated by the Charleston Convention, be defeated in the Presidential election, and the Republican or Abolition party succeed in electing their candidates, then the Southern Legislatures, as soon thereafter as they shall successively assemble together, should recall their Senators and Representatives from the Congress of the United States, and invite the co-operation of their sister Southern States to devise means for their common safety.

But should the Charleston Convention fuse to declare and affirm the rights of the South, as deducible from the Dred Scott case, or nomi-nate candidates who will not affirm and support them, then let the Southern States non and support candidates of their own, plainly and faithfully reflecting and supporting their rights.
"5 Should the Southern States succeed in electing their sectional candidates, thus nominated, of course will deem it a sufficient proof FOR THE PRESENT heir safety in the Union.

"6. But should the Southern States fail in elect-having been concerted, it next became necessary for the originators of the movement to devise an expedient by which the Democratic party might be denationalized, their hold on the Southern mind weakened, and their power so destroyed as to render them an easy prey to the Republican party, upon whose success it was arranged, according to these historical probabilities, to sused, was the programme. The evidence in support per of the representation is found in the events that of the representation is found in the events that followed, and in those now passing before the eyes while I invoked co-operation; while I appeal to of the American people. If the State Rights men keep out of that Convention, that decision must inevitably be against the uth, and that either in direct favor of the Doug las doctrine, or hy the endorsement of the Cincin-nati platform, under which Douglas claims shelter for his principles. The State Rights men should esent in that Convention their demand for cision, and they will obtain an endorsement their demands, or a denial of these demands. I indorsed, we shall have greater hope of triumpl of a Disurion Party.

LET THE MASSES READ AND PONDER!! within the Union. If denied, in my opinion the State Rights wing should secede from the Convention and appeal to the whole people of the South without distinction of parties, and organize another or Convention upon the basis of their principles which it is imputed, we stated that it would be our purpose to-day to lay before our readers some of the evidences—for which we are indebted to the National Intelligencer—which betray the existence of a disloyal sentiment at the South, if they do not point to the formation of a deliberate conspiracy on the part of a few against the integrity of the Union.

In order to follow this history in its successive developments, we must commence with the foredevelopments, we must commence with the fore-shadowings of the movement which finally cul-slavery. If we should fail to obtain so just a system of legislation, then the South should seek her independence out of the Union."

How truly this programme was fulfilled, so far cess of any disunion movement, for so long as the as regards the Legislature of Alabama, is read in the following resolutions, passed by the Legislamaintained their prestige as a national party, it ture, and approved by the Governor of that State n the 25th of February 1860:

"1st. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in Genera Assembly convened, That the State of Alabama fully concurring with the State of South Carolin in affirming the right of any State to secode from the Confederacy, whenever, in her judgment, such a step is demanded by the honor, interests and therefore, essential in the first place to disenchant the South of this illusion with regard to the Democratic or any other National party. Hence the significance of the following extract from the violence and in new and more alarming forms, may constrain her to a reluctant, but early exercise

sence of any preparation for a systematic co-operation of the Southern States in resisting the aggressions of their enemies, Alabama acting for erself, has solemnly declared that under n ion of a sectional Northern party, has provide triumph of such a faction in the approachin Presidential election: and, to maintain the position thus deliberately assumed, has appropriately ated the sum of $200,000 for the military con gencies which such a course may involve

How exactly so much of the programme as re lated to a contingent secession from the Demo eratic National Convention was carried out w need not pause, in view of recent and curren events, to designate. Prophecy has already been converted into fact. It is to the consequence that we turn our attention. These consequen ces are seen in the open expression of disunio endencies, confessed in the columns of certain the seceding Democracy. We select two three specimens from the many at our command

From the Charleston (S. C.) News. "It may be asked what hopes have we from the Presidential struggle. On this point we have not time to-day to dilate in full. If such is the language of certain Breckinridge ournals, the terms employed by some among his most distinguished and ardent supporters are equally significant. We cite from a letter of the Hon. Lawrence M. Keitt, of South Carolina, under date of July 18, 1860, as follows:

"And how can the South be saved from injury if And now can the South be saved from injury in the Republican party succeeds in the coming Presidential election? To similar purport ex-Governor Hebert, of Lou iana, writes as follows, under date of July 25th

"The secession of the Southern delegation a harleston and Baltimore, upon a principal so vita o us, and the final nomination of Messrs. Breck oridge and Lane upon this principle, prove that he South has at last come to her senses, and openby declared her determination to accept the responsibilities forced upon her. For once, the issue is fairly and properly made. Let us trust that all are in earnest, and that the matter will be carried out. Mr. Seward—there is no use of being olind to it—is right; there is, or soon will be, 'a rrepressible conflict.' When the war of words ver, and things come to the worst, as most assured must happen, let us hope that no one will be about from 'roll-call.'"

Mr. William E. Martin, a delegate to the Rich and Convention from the State of South Caro lina, holds in a recent letter the following lan guage, which is remarkable for its frankness in re gard to the effects likely to result from the elec ion of either a Democratic or a Republican Presi dent. (The reader will draw his own inference from Mr. Martin's silence in regard to the election of a President pledged to a "Constitutions Union:")

"The people of the South are prepared to ac with a dignity worthy of the great issues and thei own bright history. They know the crisis is inevitable. To these add the following declarations contain ed in a recent letter from Ex-Speaker Orr, o South Carolina, another of Mr. Breekinridge' supporters, and heretofore known for his conserva tive predilections: "Lincoln and Hamlin, the Black Republican nominees, will be elected in November next, and the South will then decide the great question whether they will submit to the domination of Black Republican rule—the fundamental principle of their organization being an open, undisguised and declared war upon our social institutions. elieve that the honor and safety of the South, that contingency, will require the prompt secession of the slaveholding States from the Union, and iling then to obtain from the free States addi onal and higher guarantees for the protection our rights and property, that the seceding States should proceed to establish a new government. But, whilst I think such would be the imperative dut f the South, I emphatically reprobate and repuiate any scheme having for its object the separat secession of South Carolina. If Georgia, Ala-cama, and Mississippi alone, giving us a portion of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, would unite with this State in a common secession upon the election of a Black Republican. I would give my assent to th

We confess that, under ordinary circumstance we should find it difficult to explain the hot haste with which these gentlemen come forward to as sure us that their candidates are already beaten and that Mr. Lincoln is already virtually elected One would suppose that a decent respect for the listinguished gentlemen who accepted the nomnation of the seceding Democracy would preserv their friends from the incivility of vieing with their adversaries in the amiable office of thu whistling them down the wind" at the very all his opinions; for it is well known that the honthreshold of the canvass. And it is this singular lacrity for defeat which, we suppose, has begot en the suspicion in certain minds, that the antic pated result is not unwelcome to some, if it can e made an available means to disunion ends. For ourselves, we prefer to accept these frank ad nissions in simple evidence of the intelligence and sincerity of those who make them, and, with ut venturing at all to question the accuracy o f Bell and Everett do not share in any such despondency with regard to the election of their the purity of his motives was conceded, and, andidates. The deep and deepening popula sympathy enlisted in support of the cause inaugurated by the Constitutional Union Party, already by but too well." We quote from a speech deliveraffords the most animating incentives to persever ing effort, and invites, we think, the cordial co-operation of all in whom the love of country is su perior to the love of party.

If we are asked whether, in these reflections on the disunion tendencies confessed by so many stituents and mine? On this score we have only to adopt the following language held by the venerable and eloquent Crittenden in his patriotic speech delivered

And here again, as in respect to Mr. Douglas, my objection is not to the candidate as an individual. I should hope that Mr. Breck-inridge is not a disunion man. [A voice, 'Yes, he He ought not to be. "Others have taken a different view of it. They ook with disaffection towards the Union, and enly avow it. The ultra Southern States par ipate in this feeling, and Senators in Congress men, I know, of character and reputation—pouse the same fatal cause. This is the party which we may entertain apprehensions that it will effect the dismemberment of the Government.—

Many of its members are noble spirited gentlemen. It is only upon this one subject they have been misled or have misled themselves. They have been betrayed into this delusion. In all other respects they are generous and of high character, but the spirit of disunion prevails among them, and it is only the more dangerous when entertained by such men. They openly talk about it, they write about it, they invite it. They have cked themselves into the belief that the Governnent must be dissolved. They want to meet the magined necessity at once; they want to dissolve the Union immediately, to precipitate the people into it. The people, forsooth, are not so far-see-ing as they are. The leaders anticipate overt acts on the part of the Republicans, and want now to effect a revolution in the cotton States, and establish a new Government. These sentiments per-vade the South, and make up the body and soul of the party which has nominated our fellow-citizen, Mr. Breckinridge, as its candidate for the Presidency. Is there no danger that by electing him you would give new energy to that destructive impulse, and new power to this disunion sentiment, and to the cause of disunion? Mr. Breck-inridge himself follows in the lead. He is part and parcel of the great party. You see this his nomination and acceptance of it, and can hen foresee with clearness the disasters that would follow his success. Possibly it may be the policy of those who nominated him to unite old Kentucky is quite an important State in this Union. She is the Candidates for State Rectors, will address the heart of it—she is the heart of it. [Immense en-thusiasm.] To obtain her concurrence is of the greatest possible consequence to those who fancy that they can make a Republic in the South more glorious and more prosperous than the great Re-public of which we now form a part. Such have been their plans for a long time. Kentucky and Tennessee, which old General Gaines called the two military States of the Union, have laid in the way of that sort of treachery to the Union. They are two States not easily overcome; and though I would not wish to diminish the honor of Mr. Breckinridge's nomination as he him self concieves it, ye I imagine there are thousands in the South wh would go for Mr. Breckinridge mainly in the hope that it might be the means of annexing Kentucky as a sort of frontier province to this Southern Republic of cotton States that is to be made. If they can bring about that union, if they can bring over old Kentucky and make her an ally of their scheme for the dismemberment of this confederacy, and the erection of a seperate Republic, i would be a matter of very little consequence whether Mr. Breckinridge was elected or not.— They would rather have Kentucky for their ally than Mr. Breckinridge for their President. There is no disunionist in the South who would not make that choice. I fear this. I am a Union man, and particularly jealous of everything that threatens the existence of the Union." That Mr. Crittenden did not speak without raonal presumptious in thus defining the conjectural motives which induced the leaders of this movement to select a Kentuckian as their standard bearer, might be inferred from the intelligence and the integrity which that venerable statesman and patriot brings to the formation and expression of rable loyalty of Kentucky to the Union has metimes been objected to her as a source of re proach by those who have not always been able to ecure from her a ready indorsement of their ex treme views and measures. When, for instance in 1858, it was sought to identify the honor and nterests of the South with the fate of the Lempton Constitution, then pending in Congress, the State of Kentucky, as represented in part by hese predictions in regard to Mr. Breckinridge's Mr. Crittenden, declined the association. For chances," we take leave to say that the friends this conviction of public duty her Senator was taxed with a want of fealty to her rights, though at the same time, a fear was expressed lest Kentucky at that day loved the Union "not wise d by Mr. Toombs, in the Senate of the United States on the 18th of March, 1858: "I do not wonder that I should differ with my riend on this question; it is the legitimate result of the overthrow of the Missouri restriction.— What was the effect of this repeal upon his conexclusion was overthrown, and his countrymen candidates for Electors in the Fifth Congressional claimer made in a previous article. We regret the in the Territories. This is her right, sir. Is times and places, viz: have sometimes feared that her danger was that she might 'love not wisely but too well;' that her worship of it bordered on idolatry."

Having thus placed before our readers a few of the indications on which the charge of disunion "We are now left to compare Mr. Bell with the tendencies is ascribed to certain Democratic politicians at the South, together with the frank avow als made by some to the effect that they will seek of an unacceptable result in the approaching Presidential election, it remains for us to point ckians. Rhett spoke as follows in the meeting held at Charleston on the 9th of July last, to ratify the minations of the Richmond Convention:

"I do not say what I may do in the event of a Black Republican being elected. You may think and enter upon resolves. The difficulty is, if you make up your minds to that alternative, they in disease on any part of it. No organ is free would not believe you. They would believe that ou were merely talking. These men have no not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously nore idea that the Union is in danger than any caused by mercurial disease, low living disother hearsay. They have no confidence in your courage, decision, and regard for liberty. They believe that you will submit to their aggressions above all, by the venereal infection. If these remarks are true, they reflect only on that class of Southern politicians whom a North their children." Carolina contemporary calls "the ultimatum makers." As the Southern people never authorized the language held by these officious gentlemen, it would be more modest in them, as well as more discreet, to take upon their own shoulders the onus of that discredit in which they seek to involve their whole section. We do not pause to point, in addition, to the folly of publishing "resolves," which according to Mr. Rhett, are regarded at the North only as "any other hearsay." If such demonstrations are so useless in that quarter, we venture to pronounce them doubly useless, in the name of all gallant and loyal Southons, who will be under the necessity of ever recurring to the brave "resolutions" passed by any disunion Convention, in order to ascertain when their rights have been invaded, and what shall be the mode and measure of their redress.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to with stand the attacks of other diseases; conse quently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is com bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Dis-EASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitia-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in to an article in another page, which proves, beyond a doubt, the designs of the Yancey-Breckinridge party. Read and ponder well.

Yancey's Great Speech-One of the Issues,

Our readers will remember that WM. L. YANCEY-the Aaron Burr of the present day; do find the following editorial in the Statesthe destroyer of the National Democratic party, and the founder of the Breckinridge faction-addressed a large crowd at Memphis lately. He went there, in part, to defend himself against the various charges made against him, and especially that of disunion. been published in pamphlet form at the Yeoman office, as a Breckinridge campaign document. It is headed thus: "THE ISSUES INVOLVED IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST."

ate an exalted idea of the intellectual powers of Mr. Yancey. It is a very silly tribute to Mr. Yancey's nauseating vanity. It abounds ments which nine-tenths of the Democracy in Miss Nanceyisms, Yanceyisms, bluster, of Kentucky will respond to with enthusibravado and self-conceit. We judge from asm. Similar resolutions were passed at a its perusal that Mr. Yancey is a lady's man of faultless exterior, and that he would make lengthy and powerful speech in favor of the invites gentlemen to call and examine, at his an excellent Claude Melnotte for a country resolutions. Mr. Stevenson will be a candi- office. They are sent to him for sale and theatre. In politics he is a fillibustering fop, date for re-election, and with Magoffin, Peywho is on the constant look out for some State ticket, so far as we are informed, as Yankee to tread on his coat tail. He is a well as the whole Democratic press of Ken man of luxuriant hair and imagination, who tucky, with two or three exceptions, wil has been appointed by Yancey to watch over stand upon this great national Democratic the interest of the South. He necessarily platform. Non-interference is an establishexists in a constant state of alarm; his eyes the Kentucky Democracy heartily respond

But we commenced this article for the purpose of inviting the attention of the reader tented to let right of property rest upon the to the position occupied by this Breckinridge basis defined by the Constitution and the orator on one of "the issues involved in the Courts, and depend upon the protection the Constitution and the Courts afford. Slavery Presidential contest"-disunion.

In reference to the celebrated Slaughter letter, Mr. Yancey, in his speech, as published at the Yeoman office, says:

"THERE IS NOT A WORD IN THAT MENT IN IT, I DISAVOW.

Now that Kentuckians may understand what sentiments Mr. Yancey still holds-on the all absorbing question of Union or disunion-and refuses to "disavow," we here re publish the Slaughter letter in full:

MONTGOMERY, June 15. Dear Sir-Your kind favor of the 15th is received. I hardly agree with you that a general movement can be made that will clear out the Augean stable. If the Democflies. The remedy of the South is not in such a process, it is in a diligent organizaresenting their motives and misrepresenting their sentiments. The South does tion of her true men for prompt resistance to the next aggression. It must come in the nature of things. No national party can save faith of the national Democracy is for nonwe could do as our fathers did, organize committees of safety all over the cotton Statesand it is only in them that we can hope for tage of our opponents and our distraction an effective movement—we shall fire the South and detriment —Lex. Breckinridge and his organs in Kentucky? Southern issues paramount, and will influence parties, legislatures and statesmen. I nave no time to enlarge, but to suggest,

Signed, W. L. YANCEY. To JAS. S. SLAUGHTER, ESQ.

Here is an explicit declaration of Yancey as to the mode by which the cotton States could be precipitated into a REVOLUTION. Here is an express announcement that in Mr. Yancey's opinion "no national or sectional" party could save the South? In this letter he boldly advises the formation of "committees of safety" all over the cotton States. No candid mind can deny that this Slaughter letter is a disunion document.

In the face of all this the central organ of the Breckinridge party in this State-the chief editor of which is a member of the Breckinridge State Central Committee, bas published, in pamphlet form, the Memphis speech of Yancey, in which he re-asserts every sentiment in the Slaughter letter.

Is not this giving aid "and comfort" to the secession design of Wm. L. Yancey?

Let it be remembered that Wm. L. Yancev, who now proposes a plan by which "we shall fire the Southern mind, give courage to each other, and at the proper moment by one organized concerted action, we can precipitate the cotton States into revolution," is now making speeches for Mr. Breckinridge by the request of the National committee of the Secession party. He therefore speaks by authority, and it must be regarded that the rep resentatives of that party, like Mr. Yancey, indorse every sentiment of the Slaughter letter. What further proof is needed of the dis union tendencies of the Breckinridge party

SPECIAL NOTICES. DAUGHTERS COLLEGE HARRODSBURG, KY.

We have determined to reorganize our SCHOOL FOR Young Ladies, and hereafter to concentrate our labors within the limits of a few select classes. This we feel impelled to do for several reason

1. We cannot, without the erection of a mam-moth establishment, accommodate the annually increasing patronage of the school. This we feel unwilling, at present, to undertake.

We desire to make our course of study more varied, extensive, and thorough; to devote more attention to the healthful development of mind and heart, and the formation of character 3. We desire to relieve ourselves of the distract ing annoyances of a multitude, and at the same time to surround our students with the more genial induence of home-life. We have some regard, also, to the enlightened opinions of an advancing age, which call for a higher, purer, and more cultivating regime for our daughters. 4. We are not satisfied merely to overses our school; we wish to bring each pupil at all times under our own immediate eye and personal influ-ence. We wish to render our own labor more pro-ductive, by bringing our experience and skill to bear directly upon every member of our class.

5. In fine, though large public schools have their advantages, yet we feel, as educators and as Chris-tians, that it would be better for humanity and more acceptable to God, to educate wall, than to neutralize our influence by attempting to educate

We propose, therefore, to limit our classes after the present term, which expired in June, to one half the present number. While this is a great sacrifice, in a pecuniary view, we hope that the increased good we may effect may secure for us a greater reward in the gratitude of our pupils and in the approbation that comes from God.

We particularly request that all applications for admission be made early; session commences Sep-

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United hysicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the prepara-tion, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trum-peting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid destination of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of un-alloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system. giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find per directions on the bottle, and they will and in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians because it is agreeable to the taste as cians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhosa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and most Convenient Artificial Light in the World! THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety, and simplicity far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixture is so simple that it is not fiable to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal the Vesper fixtures from the Vespe the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient.
